

Increasing SEM Campaign Revenue by more than 6X in 60 days

Summary

Cape Air partnered with EveryMundo to develop comprehensive Search Engine Marketing (SEM) campaigns to promote all of their routes. Cape Air's revenue from SEM campaigns rose more than 6x in the first 60 day period, revealing the effectiveness of the campaigns and ad structure.

The Challenge

Cape Air's SEM strategy focused on using brand terms in Search, however, there was a huge opportunity to acquire new users and increase visibility and revenue by optimizing their Paid Search Channel. This solution that would allow them to promote all routes with the correct keyword patterns and relevant ad copy to increase click-through-rate (CTR), and conversions.

The Solution

EveryMundo deployed airTRFX[®] and two of our airSEM[®] tools: airBLDR[®] and airDPI[®], to generate route-related SEM campaigns in all languages and markets covered by the Cape Air.

airTRFX: airTRFX provides the most relevant landing page experience for SEM campaigns by updating available fares in real-time and ensuring the language and market on the page is consistent with the user's search behavior.

airDPI: The EveryMundo dynamic price insertion tool. Cape Air used airDPI to generate ads with dynamic fares, displaying the lowest fare for the next 90 days, with fare updates in real-time.

airBLDR: airBLDR automatically generates all necessary information on different levels for route-related SEM campaigns. With airBLDR, Cape Air generated comprehensive SEM accounts for 4 markets and 2 languages, covering 76 routes, over 300K keywords, and 4 different ad types.

The Results

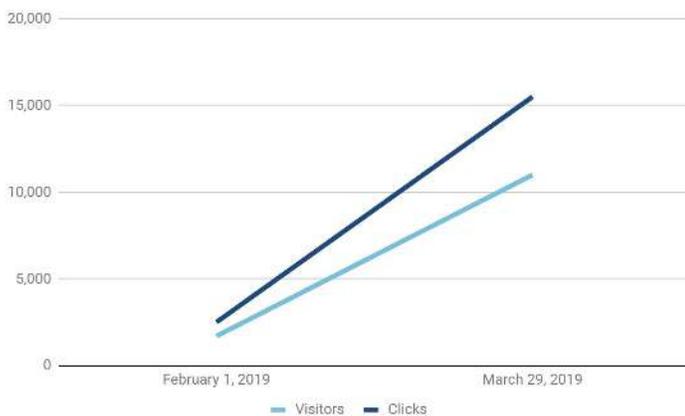

Within 60 days of the campaign launch, Cape Air saw massive results. The strategy to maximize CTR by displaying highly relevant ads in different languages, for different markets, with selective keywords was a success and continued to increase the number of visitors and clicks to Cape Air's site beyond March. Cape Air's revenue from SEM campaigns rose more than 6x in the first 60 day period, revealing the effectiveness of the campaigns and ad structure.

“Having the expertise and guidance from the SEM group with a robust group of products has revolutionized the way that we approach digital marketing. Being a smaller regional airline, we were hesitant to enter an agreement for fear that we’d be a small fish in a big pond. Our experience has been the converse. We’re treated as an important member of their client base, and afforded scalable marketing solutions.” - Trish Lorino, VP of Marketing & PR, Cape Air
